

peanut on a string

natural jewelry
for natural people.
nutritious and good for
you. fiber and roughage. ephemeral. enjoy it while you can. recommended for eating during Drum Space (crunching sounds add to percussion). the original peanut on a string was found hanging on a lamp post. so this idea was thought up by someone else. we're just spreading it around. why not try eating the shell. you'll be surprised. don't eat the string. string is excellent replacement for broken shoelace. or as tinder for campfire (although you should be saving your navel lint for this). we advocate all legume jewelry. please feel free to copy this idea. for marketing information mail something nice to peanut on a string, inc., 116 w. lancaster ave., downingtown, pennsylvania 19335. sometimes it's good to have a nut hanging around. god bless the grateful dead. columbus ohio

If you're lost, hold peanut on a string at arm's length. peanut will point to phone booth.
